Conversation with Nick:

1. So talk about your ministry/career journey leading up to your time at the ABSC.
2. A big part of what we do is telling church planting stories for the purpose of letting people know what God is doing across the state and also to encourage more people to be involved in church planting. So what are some things that will help us and our church planters tell more compelling stories?
3. What are your top five tips for taking great pictures to help frame a story?
4. What are your top five videography tips for telling a better story?
5. Resources for purchasing good media equipment and what some of the essential pieces of equipment would be.
6. What one big piece of advice would you give church planters on storytelling and connecting with millennials?
